Dantosa Site Map:

"The owners are very lucky to have this magical and private location so close to the heart of Katoomba. I used the property for a company retreat and we didn't even manage to fully use everything Dantosa had to offer.

In terms of the rooms and facilities everything is of a very high standard. The owner was very friendly and easy to communicate with, and his property managers sorted out my arrival questions with ease.

We would definitely stay here again if given the choice and do happily recommend Dantosa to other companies who are looking for a private intimate setting at which to enjoy one another's company." – Mikey
